

ISTITUTO MARANGONI MILANO AND FIRENZE LANGUAGE CERTIFICATES FOR AFAM COURSES

Non-native speakers who should like to apply for AFAM programmes will need to present a certificate of language proficiency, obtained no earlier than 2 years before the start of the chosen course.

In particular, for 3-year undergraduate programmes (First level Academic Diploma) courses students are required to prove a language proficiency of at least B1 CEFR level; for First Level Academic Master courses, students are required to demonstrate at least B2 CEFR level.

Below is the list of the most common language certificates, which can be accepted for AFAM courses by Istituto Marangoni Italian schools.
